THE CEREMONY AT BODYSGALLEN HALL

EVERY VISIT BENEFITS THE NATIONAL TRUST

Next to the Main Hall is this imaginatively restored 18th century stone building named after one of the famous families associated with Bodysgallen, now skillfully converted and capable of hosting 50 people for a Civil Ceremony or partnership. The Upper Wynn Room is licensed for the Ceremony, followed by luncheon in one of the two dining rooms in the historic Main Hall. Reception drinks will be offered in the first floor Drawing Room.

Following confirmation that the hotel has the requested date/s available for your Reception, all enquiries relating to the Ceremony should be made directly to the Superintendent Registrar who can be contacted between 9-00am and 12-00 noon on weekdays. Tel (01492) 576525 or 576526. They alone can agree the arrangements for the Ceremony, together with the appropriate fees.

Bodysgallen Hall reserves the right to only allow the Ceremony to take place on the understanding that luncheon or dinner will follow in the hotel.
